Quick Quotes

Q. 67 to go with yesterday's 65, how does that leave you feeling?

TYRRELL HATTON: I mean, I'm pretty happy with the score. Got off to another nice start again today. I feel like I've generally played some pretty good golf. We got a little unlucky on the back nine which I feel like it stalled our momentum a little bit. Really happy to par the last today. That's probably one of the best 3-woods I've hit in my life to be fair and I didn't realize it was as close as it was. It was a tough crowd on 18. Nice way to finish the day.

Q. Eight birdies and three bogeys; is that just the nature of the position, if you are in position, birdies are there but if you get out of position, it's tough to save par?

TYRRELL HATTON: It is, the rough, bermuda, is just hard to play out of. It's just very inconsistent. The minute you start missing fairways, it's just hard to make par. I mean, I holed a really good par putt on 16 after being out of position off the tee. But yeah, hopefully the putter stays fairly hot and we have a good weekend.

Q. Give us your thoughts on going into the weekend in the position that you're now in tied with Matt at the top of the board, a little bit of separation from the others?

TYRRELL HATTON: Yeah, there's still 36 holes to play. I have a fairly good record around here. Matt has an excellent record around here. But you know, we'll enjoy each other's company tomorrow and hopefully we can keep playing well.
