Q. So many highlights when you look back on the year, the Olympics being a standout, and highest-ever finish in the Masters as well. How do you reflect on the year as a whole beginning as it did with that win over in Dubai?

TOMMY FLEETWOOD: Yeah, there was good stuff. I mean, yeah, can't forget about the win, that win in Dubai. It was great to win again, and yeah, there was highlights throughout the year.

I think I played a lot of consistent golf. The Masters was great. That's my highest-ever finish there. Felt very special.

And the Olympics, of course, being stood on an Olympic podium is something you'll never forget.

Some good highlights thrown in with a lot of consistency and a few disappointments along the way but that's just life as a professional golfer, or I guess that's like a general.

It's been good. I would have loved to finish stronger. At the moment, I still feel sort of like my mind is on this week and I feel disappointed but I think overall when I look back at the year, there will be a lot of good stuff, and hopefully I can now look to improving over the next few months and be ready to come out here starting strong.

Q. Ryder Cup year next year, will dominate loads of the players' agendas, including yourself. You'll probably put the clubs away, but there's the Academy down the road. Are you going to be seen there over the Christmas period?

TOMMY FLEETWOOD: Yeah, I don't think I'll be having that much of a rest. There's things would just like to continue to improve. Obviously we have big goals ahead in the year to come. So I'll come out fresh next year, but I'll definitely be working and trying to improve.

Yeah, that's just like the work never stops, and we'll crack on and be back at the Academy very, very shortly.
