Q. What do you think the attitude should be for this team tonight?

COLLIN MORIKAWA: Energy has to be up. We know there's going to be 12 points tomorrow. We're still going to have a chance. There's always a chance. Obviously it's going to be tough and it's an uphill battle.

But look, each one of us has to deal with what we have in front of us, and that's going to be our plan tomorrow, and it's find a way to put a lot of red on the board.

Q. Your captain said this is the most unified team, the tightest team he's ever been a part of. And he's been part of many. How would you describe the unity of this American team?

COLLIN MORIKAWA: It's very high up there. I mean, I've been on two past teams, and this team is up there if not the best. And look, we all enjoy each other's company. We all want to win at the end of the day. We all want to find a way to win.

And obviously we put ourselves on a little bit of a climb, but look, I wouldn't trust any other 11 guys out there to be with me out there tomorrow and to find a way. So hopefully we can kind of finish off this session on a high note and get it going tomorrow.
