

Horizon Irish Open

Friday, 1 July, 2022

Thomastown, County Kilkenny, Ireland

Mount Juliet Estate

Jorge Campillo

Quick Quotes

HORIZON Irish Open

will be a good weekend I think.

Q. Great to see you atop the leaderboard at 11-under how are you feeling?

JORGE CAMPILLO: Very good. I played great over the last two days, so I can't complain. It was great two days. Today was a little tougher than yesterday and I managed to play okay as well, so I'm quite happy about it.

Q. You lost four performances and looks like you're trending in the right direction, and you've been a little under the weather but does it feel like your game is in a good place?

JORGE CAMPILLO: Yeah, it has been all year. I make a bunch of cuts. You know, some weeks I didn't put good. Some weeks I didn't drive it good and some weeks I didn't hit the irons good. I guess this week, everything is good, so far, so good. Hopefully I can keep playing like this but yeah, been playing pretty much solid all year.

Q. It started raining towards the last few holes for you out there. You're done, you're finished and you can relax and put your feet up. If the rain does come even harder this afternoon, for the afternoon players, what do you think they can expect? How will the course play trickier?

JORGE CAMPILLO: Well, much harder. I'm not so good in the rain but the guys from the U.K., they are quite good, so they still play good.

But yes, definitely it's going to play longer. It's harder definitely in the rain and still a little windy. So I think it's going to be a tough afternoon if stay like this.

Q. What does it mean after 36 holes so far, still plenty of golf to be played. What's your strategy or mindset going into the weekend now?

JORGE CAMPILLO: Well, it's going to be a hard weekend but just looking forward to the weekend. If I can keep putting the ball in play off the tee, hitting good irons like I've been doing, not missing short putts, missed a few today, it

