HORIZON Irish Open

Q. As things have come to a close, you have found yourself with a place at St Andrews. Give us some reaction as to what you're thinking.

DAVID LAW: Yeah, unbelievable. It's a dream come true. I've never played a major or an open before. To have my first one at St Andrews will be a bit amazing.

Q. Obviously as a Scotsman to play at St Andrews at The Open for the 150th, when were you thinking about this, especially on the back nine today?

DAVID LAW: For The Open, to be honest, not until the last hole. You know, I was a little more focused on winning the tournament to try and get that last spot into The Scottish Open next week.

So you know, when it came to The Open, it was just the last green that it even crossed my mind.

Q. It's quite a week to be a part of that history. Friends and family going to be ringing your phone off the hook pretty soon?

DAVID LAW: Yeah, I think my mom and dad actually have a holiday booked that week. Whether that gets canceled or they go or what, but it will be a dream to come true to play, especially at the Home of Golf.
