

Alfred Dunhill Links Championship

Saturday, October 1, 2022

St. Andrews, Fife, Scotland

Ryan Fox

Quick Quotes

Q. Great recovery after that bogey, 7-under here today. You're in the mix.

RYAN FOX: Yeah, I'm happy. It's been a bit of a funny few weeks for me. I haven't been playing that well. Just happy to survive yesterday, and felt pretty good for the most part today and holed some putts. Yeah, a couple of scruffy shots but overall, really happy to be in the mix going into tomorrow.

Q. How pleasing to rekindle some early season form?

RYAN FOX: Yeah, it's been good. This is a tournament I've always enjoyed playing. It's obviously hard to keep playing well. So yeah, a little dip there was a little frustrating but hopefully this is a sign of it picking backup and to be in contention again was really, really nice.

Especially with Shane Warne passing this year, the tournament means a little bit extra for me this year. Hopefully he's with me tomorrow and we can make a nice little charge.

Q. Being in contention at St Andrews on the final day, doesn't really get much better than that, does it?

RYAN FOX: No. It's a special place regardless of when you're playing it, but being one of the last couple groups on Sunday and in the mix, is very cool, and I'm looking forward to tomorrow.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

