ALFRED DUNHILL
LINKS CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Any memorable shots today?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: That was a decent round. Obviously the chip-in on the par 5 was probably the most memorable part but overall, basically solid.

Q. Your partner, how was that?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: It was the first time I'd met Brett. I'd been set up by a friend, so it was nice to meet him. Great guy, great player, and now we've done all right in the team event.

Q. How is the weather treating you this week instead of last week, mate?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: Aye, when that rain came on, I felt like, what am I doing. No, you take the rough with the smooth, isn't it. It's Scotland at the end of the day.

Q. What makes the Dunhill so special?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: The weather. No, this is home in Scotland. The weather is the weather. But to be playing in front of home fans, and it's nice and relaxed in the team environment that you're in. It's always a special event.

Q. And if you can describe this tournament in three words, what would you use?

ROBERT MacINTYRE: Two words. Top drawer.

Q. Good to be home, obviously warm welcome.

ROBERT MacINTYRE: It's been good. It's been good. The first tee today was nice. I've not really seen many people. I didn't really venture out. It was with a couple of drinks on a Sunday night and Monday night, so I've not really seen many people.
