Jamie Donaldson

Quick Quotes

Q. Great way to start your week, isn't it?

JAMIE DONALDSON: Yeah, great. Nothing was going sort of very -- a bit slow at the start and suddenly, it all kicked in in the back nine. Five in six holes to finish, so yeah, fantastic.

Q. Did you sense it coming?

JAMIE DONALDSON: Not really. I was just trying to be patient. You never know. The holes were a lot of downwind holes towards the end there, so it made it easier to have birdie chances and hit a few good shots there. That was a nice one to hole on 18 from a distance. That green is so slopy, you're just happy with two putts and a par, but it was great to see it go in and finish well there.

Q. At your stage of your career, if you can put it that way, how special is it when you're playing here on home soil, you've got the big galleries and you've got people behind you?

JAMIE DONALDSON: It's great. I'm only an hour and ten minutes from home, so it's great to play on British soil. I love it. I've always enjoyed playing on British soil because it's what you're used to, isn't it. It's what you've grown up with and what you're used to.

Great coming here and playing here at The Belfry.
