Quick Quotes

Q. 7-under par through two days work here at The Belfry but give us a review of today's round.

BRANDON STONE: Yeah, it was really solid. I holed some really nice putts. That's kind of been the facet that's been lacking in the game over the last few months. So we did some hard work over the five-week break I took. Managed to roll it good, and keep on building on that momentum, whether the putt be for par or birdie.

Game feels solid. Don't feel like I'm doing too much different from what I had, maybe rolling a few more feet of putts in.

Q. 13 birdies over two rounds. What is it about this course you like so much?

BRANDON STONE: It's not really that. The South African cricketing legends come and played here when they had that champions tournament, and I got a very thorough rundown of how the golf course plays and what my strategy should be from Chris Morris.

So yeah, we took that to heart, and it's very aggressive. So obviously there are a lot of birdies out there. So maybe if I can do my job a little bit better and keep the bogeys off the card, it might pay dividends on Sunday.
