

Betfred British Masters hosted by Sir Nick Faldo

Saturday, August 23, 2025

Sutton, Coldfield, England

The Belfry Hotel & Resort

Simon Forsström

Quick Quotes

Q. 71-71-65. What was the difference in your play today?

SIMON FORSSTRÖM: I think probably more fairways and a little bit more aggressive to the pins and irons were better today as well.

Q. Your form coming in wasn't fantastic, well down in The Race to Dubai and four missed cuts in a row. Had you felt this coming?

SIMON FORSSTRÖM: No, not really. I've been struggling and trying to find something that works, and the first nine holes of this tournament was horrible. I found something on the back nine and kept going on it and it worked very well.

Q. What did you find?

SIMON FORSSTRÖM: It was something down small close to the ball, like a small drill, working very well. I got the club more in front of me instead of back and hitting it left.

Q. Players often tell me when they go out in a situation on Saturday when they are well behind the leaders, they play a bit more aggressively to try and make up ground. Did you do that today?

SIMON FORSSTRÖM: I didn't have that plan but maybe the pins were more accessible or something. It felt easier today and there's no wind, as well. So I think it just was easier.

Q. You played yourself into a wonderful position in this championship with one day to go. What are your thoughts on possibilities going forward into Sunday?

SIMON FORSSTRÖM: If I play like I did today, I have a good chance to do that.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

