

Open de France

Friday, October 11, 2024

Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France

Le Golf National

Jesper Svensson

Quick Quotes

Q. 68 to go with yesterday's 65. Give us an assessment of your day out there today.

JESPER SVENSSON: A bit more shaky. But yeah, very happy to still be under par today. Yesterday, everything felt great with the game, and today, wasn't really there. But still managed to make some really good shots and a few good putts.

Q. Tell us about the condition out there. All the rain on Wednesday and Wednesday was soft. What's it like out there today?

JESPER SVENSSON: Still pretty soft. Especially if you miss the fairway, you get the little -- a good amount of mud balls and you sort of have to pick a side of where it's going to come out to.

But it feels like a few greens today even bounced, also. I think it's going to firm up a little bit.

Q. I think this is your first time here at Le Golf National. Was this a place that immediately you liked the look of? Of course you're really long off the tee, which I'm guessing is a help around here.

JESPER SVENSSON: It's a great course. You just have to hit good shots pretty much everywhere. You can't get around with -- you have to be very smart and hit the ball good, I think. Yeah, I just really like it, the layout, and that it reward good shots, yeah.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

