Quick Quotes

Q. 64, talk us through your day.

JEFF WINTHER: Well, it had a nice easy day. It felt easy. I was trying to put the golf a little aside, make fun a little bit with my caddie, and he was making fun of me. Makes it a lot easier, doesn't it.

Q. Five back at the start of the day. Did you have any game plan?

JEFF WINTHER: Fairways and greens, and hope my putter is working. It was working lovely today. Just one putt on 9, but I can't really complain about that, but I misread it completely.

Otherwise playing really solid. Got away with the screw-ups I made. I made a crazy birdie on 5, but that should have been a bogey or a double but turned out to be a birdie. Very, very pleased over the weekend, as you said, bogey-free. So can't complain.

Q. What are you going to do for next 20, 25 minutes?

JEFF WINTHER: I think we'll go to the bar here I think just to have -- no. It's because they have got a TV up there. It's not because we're getting hammered already, okay. I think we'll go up to the bar and see if we can see what's going on on the last couple holes.

Q. Well-played. Might see you later on.

JEFF WINTHER: Maybe, maybe not.
