

Open de France

Wednesday, September 17, 2025

Saint-Nom-la-Bretèche, France

Le Golf National

Adrien Saddier

Quick Quotes

Q. Welcome home, playing in the oldest national Open in Europe. How does it feel to be teeing it up this week?

ADRIEN SADDIER: It feels great. Nice place. Family on my side. Exciting week ahead.

Q. Given some form, coming into this week with a Top-5 and runner-up finish. How are you feeling about your game at the minute and as a whole on the season?

ADRIEN SADDIER: Yeah, I think my game was pretty good this season with some great results like last week, and I just showed what I can do on the big stage, and I just look forward to do another good week here in France.

Q. You mentioned your friends, your family, you have some home support. How much does that help coming into a week like that?

ADRIEN SADDIER: Yeah, especially with this week, a lot of media ask me some questions. So it's nice on everything to just in my bubble with my family. I like to just disconnect from here so it quite good.

Q. Does it add a bit pressure, knowing it's your home Open and how well you've been playing and that you want to put on a show in front of your fans?

ADRIEN SADDIER: Well, it's good fresh, I guess. I just want to, yeah, like I said, have a good week in front of them and if not, it doesn't matter. I just try to enjoy the friendship, all my family support and just try to have a good week.

Q. The last couple of French Opens, Top 20 finishes. Different course this week. What do you make of the challenge?

ADRIEN SADDIER: The course is quite nice. Honestly I've never been here. This is my first time. It's a kind of old-style course with tricky fairway, sloped green. It's a very good course. I think it will be a challenging week here. I'm not sure the score will be really low. So I think, yeah, just a good challenge this week.

Q. And the par three on 18, what do you make of that?

ADRIEN SADDIER: It's really tough. It's really tough. We were talking about a three to make the cut or a three to win, and it won't be easy for sure. You need to have a couple of birdie before to make this one. It's a tough hole, a tough finish hole, and I'm sure we'll get some drama on it. FastScripts by ASAP Sports ...

