Quick Quotes

Q. What did you make of your performance out there today?

JEFF WINTHER: It was a great day today. Made a lot of putts. Played well, yeah.

Q. Three straight birdies to open up your round. How much momentum did that give you for the rest of the round?

JEFF WINTHER: Not really. It was about survival today. I think I've got a slight fever and very snotty. So I need to go see the doc, I think. But beware of the ill golfer, they say.

Q. Was there any part of your game that you can pinpoint that worked particularly well?

JEFF WINTHER: I got in a lot of good positions off the tee, which makes it crucial to go for the pins because they are tucked away here and there. Made a lot of putts between 15 and 25 feet, which obviously keeps your momentum going. I think you need to hit fairways here otherwise you're struggling.

Q. Unfortunate to drop one, but bounced back quickly down the last. How pleased are you with the finish?

JEFF WINTHER: Not to bothered about that. It was about survival on the last five holes. I'm going to get some lunch now, see the doc and straight back to bed.
