DP WORLD
INDIA CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Solid round, how would you assess it coming off the course?

KEITA NAKAJIMA: It was tough. My tee shot was so many going to the left but I have played with patience. Yeah, it's good two days.

Q. I think you missed eight fairways, so you must be proud of how you recovered so well.

KEITA NAKAJIMA: Just committed my swing. That's why I play well.

Q. Obviously that amazing approach on the par-58, the eagle, talk us through that shot.

KEITA NAKAJIMA: Yeah, that hole, the thinking was I want to make four but that second shot was tricky. The whole right side is out-of-bounds, right. That was lucky. That was my best shot today.

Q. Obviously you chipped in for a birdie at 15, very difficult chip?

KEITA NAKAJIMA: It was difficult but that was perfect.

Q. And you've won in India before, second this year. Why do you play so well in India?

KEITA NAKAJIMA: I love India. I love Indian golf fans. They know the game. But this golf course is tough, right. I don't know why I play well this tough course. But when I come to India, I can play well.
