Quick Quotes

Q. So talk to me about the wind today. Feel like a couple other players were saying they were hitting like four or five clubs up.

MEGHA GANNE: Yeah.

Q. Just want to hear your experience about it.

MEGHA GANNE: Yeah. The wind is -- it's really challenging. I do think it helps that we've had now two, three matches in the wind. Because you get better and better at just knowing how the golf course works with the wind.

I think the side wind is equally as challenging as the into and especially the holes into the water it comes into play the most. I think that's why the finishing holes are so great.

Q. I feel like it seems like the wind or the challenging conditions bring out the best of your game, some confidence. Like where do you think that comes from?

MEGHA GANNE: I mean, I think I've just -- my golf coach and I have always made sure I know how to hit it underneath the wind, low, knock-down shots. It's a shot that I have a lot of comfort with. That's pretty much the golf swing I was using for every approach that I hit out here today.

So, yeah, I just feel like it's an extra swing that I have in my bag that is really nice out here.

Q. Absolutely. Was there like any point in the match where you felt like you had some true momentum going where you felt like kind of confident going into the next stretch of holes?

MEGHA GANNE: I think -- honestly, the whole way through I felt pretty good. I was definitely blown away by how powerful of a player Eila is and how far she hits it. I think that was a little bit intimidating off the bat to be playing against.

I made four birdies on my front nine, so good stretch there. Then a lot of good par putts in the wind on the back nine, so those are always nice when you see those short ones falling.

Q. Have you played against her before?

MEGHA GANNE: No.

Q. First time?

MEGHA GANNE: Yeah.

Q. Do you kind of allow yourself to think about what is ahead? We've obviously got the semis tomorrow, but is this a position that you feel like comfortable in our familiar with and like what does that feel like for you?

MEGHA GANNE: I mean, I've been to the semis before when I was like a baby I feel like. So I don't remember much. But I do remember that I wanted to be in the final. I didn't get this last time, so definitely thinking about how to make my way there.

Q. Redemption story for you.

MEGHA GANNE: Yeah.

Q. That's awesome. I guess just do you have any thoughts on how to kind of stay in the moment or composed for tomorrow?

MEGHA GANNE: Kind of just been doing what I've been doing. Keep doing what I've been doing. My mom flew in last night, so having her and my dad here is perfect.

So I think my mind will be in a comfortable spot tomorrow.

Q. I know you had a lot of time before the round today just to reflect, practice. Anything special that you did this morning?

MEGHA GANNE: No, I don't think so. I woke up, got a massage from your wonderful staff. Ate some breakfast, yeah.

Q. Just got in the zone.

MEGHA GANNE: Yeah.
