Quick Quotes

Q. You competed in this championship, and now you just caddied, you're on the bag for the champion. How are you feeling?

CISSYE GALLAGHER: I feel great. I'm really proud of her. She's hit it great all week. She got a little tired today, but that kind of happens in a championship match when you're -- truthfully I was so exhausted I wanted the cart more than she did. But that's what happens when you're in those last few matches. It becomes an endurance test.

She's worked really hard this year. She's worked on her wedge game. She's gotten fit. She's just really put in the time and energy to do it. I'm really proud of her.

Q. How do you know each other?

CISSYE GALLAGHER: We have been playing together for a long time. Most of the ladies know each other because of golf, and Dawn works for teams that my two daughters - one played at LSU, one played at Mississippi State, I played at LSU...

She helps some college teams, and she helped my girls. She's a consultant, really just on-course stuff for kids, and really just such a great ambassador to golf in South Carolina and just a great player. She's a great athlete, great player. She would have stayed for me if I had won my few matches. She would have stayed for me as well.

We played in International Four-Ball a few times together, and I have four children, three daughters, one son. She has three daughters. We kind of have a kindred spirit on that. I'm very grateful.
