Quick Quotes

Q. We have Simon Lee here. Simon, nice playing today. Can you talk us through your round.

SIMON LEE: Yeah, I had two eagles in 18 holes, but I had a lot of mistakes today. Hopefully I will make tomorrow -- I will try to hit it well.

Q. Two eagles and a double bogey, so a lot of roller coaster up-and-down there.

SIMON LEE: Yeah, right. Today was a lot of roller coaster, yeah.

Q. How does it feel to be a part of this championship? It's the first ever playing of it and it's very special to have you here.

SIMON LEE: I think I feel great to be here. I think it's honor for me to be here in the U.S. Adaptive Open championship.

Q. How does it feel to be with other folks from the adaptive community, other players with similar stories like you?

SIMON LEE: I think, yeah, it's good to be with others.

Q. You played two practice rounds? How many practice rounds did you play?

SIMON LEE: I played two practice rounds.

Q. When you played it did you think this would be a good course for you?

SIMON LEE: Yeah, yeah. When I first come, yeah, I was thinking this golf course could be a good golf course, yeah. I was thinking that, yeah.
