Quick Quotes

Q. We're here with Simon Lee, our defending champion after round 2, 1-over 73. How did you play out there today?

SIMON LEE: I didn't play very well today. Several bogeys, birdie, and a little bit disappointed today.

Q. How badly do you want to win this championship again for the second year?

SIMON LEE: It would mean the world to me. I wanted to win this, like sky high.

Q. How has your life been different since you won last year? Do a lot of other people notice you? Are you noticed more?

SIMON LEE: After I won the championship last year, I got a congratulations letter from the President of the Republic of Korea, and many people now recognize me and congratulate me.

Q. What do you need to do tomorrow to win?

SIMON LEE: If I don't play like today, I think I can win. Make a lot of birdies.
