Quick Quotes

Q. First of all, great playing the last two days to make the cut. How does it feel?

GRACE ANNE BRAXTON: It feels really good. I'm happy making the cut, and I was really happy the way I played today.

Q. How has the experience been the last two days and just overall?

GRACE ANNE BRAXTON: It's been nice. It's been different, nice, quiet. I like the golf course. It's kind of easy. I play country clubs and this reminds me of my home course at home where I play.

Q. What does this championship mean for you and your competitors?

GRACE ANNE BRAXTON: It means that it doesn't matter what kind of disability you have as long as you can play with anybody; doesn't matter what kind of disability it is.

Q. Are there any specifics that the USGA has done to elevate the experience here for you?

GRACE ANNE BRAXTON: No. Just been really great and I liked it and it's been fun.
