Q. First, congratulations.

ABIGAIL DAVIS: Thank you.

Q. How does it feel to win your category?

ABIGAIL DAVIS: Unreal. Coming back from surgery I didn't think I was going to win. My goal was just to make the cut, so to win is unbelievable.

Q. Each round you got progressively better. What do you attribute that to?

ABIGAIL DAVIS: Definitely my swinging got a lot better. My dad and I worked really hard on the range the first day. He was a great caddie to me, so him and I work really well.

So fixing that swing also helped a lot.

Q. How would you evaluate the overall experience here at Woodmont?

ABIGAIL DAVIS: I loved it. It's a beautiful course. The amenities are amazing. Very thankful to be here.

Overall, it's outstanding. I love it here.

Q. And this year is the first year that it's broadcast live on Golf Channel. What does that mean for you and your fellow competitors?

ABIGAIL DAVIS: It's a huge deal to get the adaptive world out there so people understand kind of how it works and what like other disabilities can do.

So it's just great for us to be out there so we can show the world like we can also play golf as well.

Q. Any other special things that happened this week that really felt like elevated the event?

ABIGAIL DAVIS: No. I just think overall this whole event is just amazing and very grateful to be here. Great
