Joaquin Niemann

Q. Could you just give us your thoughts on your performance today?

JOAQUIN NIEMANN: Yeah, I would say it was a pretty solid day. Always good to -- I mean, I played really good. I shot even par. I'm still in a good position for the weekend. I know I can have a good weekend, so that's always positive.

Yeah, I thought I played really good today. The only shots I missed where I missed the fairway from the tee, they were pretty bad lies, so mostly the three of them I had to chip out, which it was not great. But yeah, pretty happy with the birdie on 18 to give me some momentum hopefully for the weekend.
