

The 150th Open

Mixed Zone

Sunday, 17 July 2022

Jason Scrivener

Q. You finished The Open with your best round of the week.

JASON SCRIVENER: Yeah, not my best stuff today, but it was perfect conditions. Yeah, really enjoyable week.

Q. In top conditions?

JASON SCRIVENER: Yeah, definitely. Today was just perfect. It was a really low score out there. Just got off to a scrappy start and fought back well. Yeah, I would have liked a few better for sure.

Q. What's your thoughts on the week? Does it give you a lot of confidence going into the rest of the year?

JASON SCRIVENER: Yeah, I feel like my game's been improving over the last couple of months. I'll build on this. Just a memorable week really. I have my family here and my wife Simone as well and my little boy. It's been really cool to have them all here and experience it. One I'll never forget for sure.

Q. One of those things that's definitely a pretty cool experience you'll reflect on.

JASON SCRIVENER: Yeah, pretty cool.

Q. What's your schedule like coming up?

JASON SCRIVENER: It looks like probably three weeks off and then possibly the Korn Ferry finals. Try to get my PGA TOUR card that way. Depending on how that goes, we'll see what happens. Yeah, a few weeks off after this, which I'm looking forward to.

Q. So plans for the weeks off?

JASON SCRIVENER: So going back to Orlando. Just have a few days off and then get back to some practise. Just chill and recoup and go again.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

