

The 150th Open

Mixed Zone

Sunday, 17 July 2022

Abraham Ancer

Q. Tell us about the week. And good finish, huh.

ABRAHAM ANCER: Definitely feels nice to finish with a 7-under, 65. I don't want to talk about could've, should've, would've. I know it could have been a lot better if I just could get the ball up-and-down with the putter from off the green. But it was a wonderful week. A golf course that I absolutely just fell in love with. Hopefully I'll have another chance to play an open in this venue because it's just awesome.

Q. So the best memories of the week, the highlights for you, what is that?

ABRAHAM ANCER: It was nice to, now that I think about it and I got this question asked a couple times, being able to be here and compete and play some decent golf and the home of golf and Tiger being maybe the last time he plays out here during The Open. That was pretty cool to see that on TV. I wasn't able to see it in person. But knowing that I was here in the same place, it was pretty sweet.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

