Guido Migliozzi

Q. Talk about how you finished the week.

GUIDO MIGLIOZZI: Yes, it's been a great week, of course, to stay here now and playing on the weekend at The Open, majors, it's always nice. It's always positive.

Part of that, it's been a tough week. A bit of shame this morning because I started very good, the round, and then not really mistakes, but I've just been unlucky. When I missed a shot by a couple of yards, I couldn't have a lie.

It's part of the game of golf. Sometimes it's good. Sometimes it's not good. But we take it. It's been a great battle until the end.

Q. What comes next for you now?

GUIDO MIGLIOZZI: Next I'll play the Olympics in two weeks. Looking forward to represent Italy in Paris. After that, I will take a few weeks off and then back on Tour after a few weeks off.
