Ludvig Aberg

Q. Talk about this week; you started slow, but these two days shooting under par, playing better?

LUDVIG ABERG: The last two days? Yeah, it's definitely been better. I felt like I was striking my irons a lot better today, which makes it a lot more stress-free. I felt like I had a lot of those sort of 20- to 25-footers that I would have loved to maybe roll a few in. But overall that's the reason why I'm bogey-free today.

Q. You look up at this leaderboard, it's a long way, but being in the mix there, how does it feel?

LUDVIG ABERG: Yeah, I'm too far back from the lead, but I still feel like a good round tomorrow, you can get a good finish, which is what I'm trying to do tomorrow. I think if I keep doing the same things that I did today and maybe shave off a few shots here and there, I think I'll be in good position.
