

The 153rd Open

Mixed Zone

Sunday, 20 July 2025

Tyrrell Hatton

Q. Question about Scottie. He's shooting lights out, and he's going to lap the field effortlessly by four or five. Do you think it's absurd what he's doing at the moment? Do you feel it's difficult to keep up?

TYRRELL HATTON: I wouldn't say winning by four is lapping the field. He's obviously played amazing golf this week. He's been amazing for the last number of years. So it's not a surprise for anyone to see the standard that he's setting. He's been No. 1 for just over two years solid now, is it? Yeah, he's a very special player.

Q. Thoughts on Portrush? I know you like your golf in Ireland.

TYRRELL HATTON: Yeah, it was good. For me at the moment, it's kind of disappointing with how I've played today, not how I hoped to finish the week.

That aside, the support I've had this week has been amazing. The golf course has been a test, but it's been good at the same time. I just wish that I had dealt with it better today.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports