Q. 3-1 victory secures another point adding to the other two and a half now you're on. Sum up how it went this morning, Emily.

EMILY TOY: Yeah, we got off to flying start, made two birdies on the first two holes and really just kept the momentum going from that, I think. We just played solid tee to green and, yeah, literally just built on the momentum that we built early in the round.

Q. Caley, do you feel like you brought the best out of each other shooting a solid round?

CALEY MCGINTY: Yeah, we played together a lot before and we know each other really well and I think in a situation like this when there's nerves and adrenaline and people and stuff that we're not used to as much, like we know how to deal with each other and bring the best out of each other in that situation.

Q. How big is it for momentum now that you've got a point on the board to add to what the other girls have earned there morning for you?

CALEY MCGINTY: Yeah, I think it's huge, it definitely helps going into the afternoon and just to get a couple of points under our belt early is good.

Q. You mentioned the afternoon now changes to four-balls, not sure if either of you are playing or what the lineup is, but how do you adapt your game now, Emily?

EMILY TOY: Probably similar, really. It probably feels frees you up a little bit having obviously your own ball, but other than that we both played solidly and if we carry that on this afternoon then we should have another good, couple of games.

Q. How do you feel the course is playing this morning?

EMILY TOY: Yeah, I think it's good. I think the setup's
