

AIG Women's Open

Mixed Zone

Saturday, 21 August 2021

Nanna Koerstz Madsen

Q. In these conditions, tied for the top of the leaderboard, how would you assess your round?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I'm happy with the round. I played quite steady out there. Hit a lot of greens. Would have liked somewhere been closer to the pin but also made some good putts. I'm happy with the round.

Q. You hit a beautiful shot out of the left rough on 9. How heavy is the rough in the damp conditions?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: That lie was actually really nice. Obviously when it's raining, it's a little bit heavier but you can get some really nice lies in the rough and you can also get some tough ones. But it was not too bad right there.

Q. Solheim Cup points up for grabs this week. Is that in the forefront of your mind at all?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Not really. No, I don't really focus on it. I try to not.

Q. Are you able to fire straight at the pins?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: A little bit. If it's a little downwind, they are still going to kick quite a lot but it does help that they are softening up, yeah.

Q. And finally, mindset going into the final round tomorrow, what are your thoughts?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Well, I've just got to try and calm down my nerves and remember that I'm playing good golf right now, so that's what I'm going to try and focus on.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports