Georgia Hall

— WALTON HEATH 2023 —

Q. Good finish, how do you reflect on the week?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, I actually played fantastic golf today. Like really good. Best I played in a couple months to be honest, so it gives me a lot of confidence going into the next three events. Obviously not the week -- I love to be in contention, but golf is weird and sometimes you just can't always get the job done or can't contend every week. But I look forward to St Andrews next year.

Q. With the challenge of the course this week, as you say, different circumstances?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, for sure. I felt I got a little unlucky here or there and some horrendous lies, but also I shouldn't have hit them there in the first place. So just keep working on my long game and keep trying to improve every day.

Q. You talked about the start of the week, the elevation of the championship, the prize money. What's it been like, the buzz this week, being out there and enjoying the home support?

GEORGIA HALL: It's been incredible to be in this London area and to have the crowds behind me, and today I had a lot of crowds and I was like. It meant the world to me and I love just coming back here and competing. So many girls saying, "Good luck, Georgia," and I know they are all waiting for me now to sign for them, and it's just great to see so many out here.

Q. Your take on last night?

GEORGIA HALL: I walked through it yesterday and it looked really cool and loads of little stands and I think it's really great can and great for the crowds here to go and visit and Ellie Goulding I heard was a massive success. No reason why it can't be like this every year.

Q. Will you turn the TV on and cheer on Charley?

GEORGIA HALL: Yeah, a hundred per cent and I'll be there if she wins.

Q. How big will it be for British golf if she could do the job?

GEORGIA HALL: It would be so big obviously. I know what it's like to go down the stretch and have all those crowds behind her and I know she's feeling a little bit nervous but I said, "It doesn't define you," and I texted her last night. I know she's got it and she's a great player, regardless of what happens.
