Rose Zhang

Q. The practise, did that help today?

ROSE ZHANG: I just had to get it out of me, when you're not going really well on the putting greens, it doesn't give you a lot of confidence in your iron shots and your entire game because when you're on the green, you still have to be grinding to make pars or trying not to 3-putt.

With that in mind, yesterday I just tried to get a lot of confidence out of some practice and yes, I made some kind of improvements on my distance control but on short putts, I strayed a little bit. So there's a lot to work from there but I see a lot of improvement.
