Andrea Lee

Q. Not exactly the way you wanted it to go today. You've got that look on your face. Too many bogeys on the last nine, I guess, right?

ANDREA LEE: Yeah, I played pretty solid on my first nine, the back nine. I tried to take advantage of the conditions because we didn't have much wind this morning. Just a little bit of rain. Then the wind started gusting definitely on the front nine, and managed to grab a birdie on No. 1, but then from then on it was a bit rough for me on the par-4s, just not playing smart and had a missed drive and just had a lot of errors. Not really happy with that, the front nine, but still got two more days left, so hopefully I can learn from it and move on.

Q. But a good finish, as well, with the birdie on 9.

ANDREA LEE: Yeah.

Q. What's the outlook for tomorrow? Just stay patient and take advantage of the opportunities when they happened?

ANDREA LEE: Yeah, I think I'll have the same game plan for the weekend. I don't know what the conditions are looking like, but I'm sure it'll be still pretty windy out there, so patience and positivity is really key, I think, this weekend. I know the scores aren't going to be super low, so it's all about just staying within myself and playing my game.

Q. Do you think it'll come down to putting?

ANDREA LEE: It always comes down to putting, doesn't it.
