Nelly Korda

Q. Happy to be joined by Nelly Korda. How are you feeling?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I mean, it's nice to finish with a birdie, but it wasn't the best of days. But it's okay.

Q. There were some positives out there. That's what we are going to focus on, after a bumpy start, this is the first birdie of the day, long-range first birdie.

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, it was nice to see one roll in. It barely rolled in but after making two bogeys on the first two holes, it was nice to rebound with a birdie.

Q. And talking of rebounding with birdies, as you said, you birdied the last. How crucial was it for you just mentally?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, obviously with the double on 16 and bogey on 17, you want to finish on a good note. I was happy to see that one roll in. Hopefully I can take that momentum into tomorrow.

Q. You are world No. 1 and obviously incredibly strong mentally. What will you say to yourself tonight? How can we learn from that mindset heading into tomorrow?

NELLY KORDA: I think it's going to be a tough day. I think the winds are going to be high. There could be rain, as well. I'm going to keep a positive attitude. Take it one shot at a time. I played really well the first two days, so I'm going to take that momentum into tomorrow.
