

AIG Women's Open

Mixed Zone

Friday, 1 August 2025

Grace Kim

GRACE KIM: Yeah. Hopefully.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

Q. How proud are you of that birdie to get inside the cut line?

GRACE KIM: To be honest, I didn't know the cut was at 2. I thought was easily at 3 or 4, so I wasn't very stressed, but I'm glad that putt went in.

Q. Is that as hard as this golf course can play without rain maybe?

GRACE KIM: Yeah, I think so. I definitely think rain can make it a lot more difficult. The wind was here to play today. Like all day we were having strong gusts, and, yeah, I mean, it kind of switched a little bit, but it was just like minimum two clubs of wind.

Q. What do you do now -- obviously back early tomorrow -- to get and ready to try and go low early and get back into the hunt for this thing?

GRACE KIM: Yeah, obviously we are in the UK so it's not always guaranteed you're going to have a calm morning. Obviously take that early tee time and make the most out of it.

I didn't have that many birdies. Probably had a lot more bogeys today, so hopefully a lot less and a lot more birdies tomorrow.

Q. Were you aware of when Steph did on 18 this morning before you went out to make the cut as well?

GRACE KIM: No.

Q. She holed a bunker shot for eagle.

GRACE KIM: To get in?

Q. Well, on what was the cut line. Good vibes for Australians on that end, is that it?

GRACE KIM: Yeah, yeah, pretty much.

Q. We'll take that and have more of them on Sunday?

