A Lim Kim

Q. You were tied for the lead after your first birdie. Did you know that?

A LIM KIM: No, I didn't know that, but keep working on it, yeah.

Q. Were you looking at leaderboards at all today?

A LIM KIM: Not yet, no.

Q. The round was up-and-down a little bit. Was it bad breaks? What was the reason?

A LIM KIM: Today it was a better war, a better lock, and then a couple of stormy conditions and then make mistakes a lot, but that is golf. So I learned a lot today.

Q. Do the windy conditions become more difficult when you're in contention?

A LIM KIM: Today a little bit for me because -- actually, yesterday was really good for me, but today it was a different angle. Yeah, that's all.

Q. You must have been very proud of your performance this week, tied fourth.

A LIM KIM: Yeah, of course. But I love the challenge because still now a little pain in my heart, but that is good motivation for me. So I'm going to keep working on it.
