

Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific Championship

Quick Quotes

Wednesday, 2 November 2022

Teng Teng Hun

Q. You are the first player to represent Macau in this championship. How does that feel?

TENG TENG HUN: Oh, really? I feel really happy to represent my region because I know I'm the the first player to represent Macau, and I feel very happy.

Q. How are you finding it so far here in Thailand?

TENG TENG HUN: I really enjoy being here. Just the course, the condition of the course is really good. The greens, the fairways, the tee box, they're in very good condition. I really like the weather here, as well. It's a little bit sunny, but it's quite comfortable.

Q. How are you feeling with your golf this week?

TENG TENG HUN: It's really good. Everything is really good. My driver, my putter, I feel very comfortable.

Q. There's a lot at stake with the championship this week with the exemptions for the winner. How does it make you feel to have that opportunity, and what are your expectations this week?

TENG TENG HUN: My expectations are I want to play under par for four days, and knowing that if I win this tournament I can compete in two majors, two women's majors, it's very exciting, and it encourages me to play better golf this week.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports