Ting-Hsuan Huang

Q. Well done today. 3-under, 6-under total. Happy with your performance?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yeah, I'm very happy. I hit more good shots. So I'm very happy.

Q. Talk to us, what was the best part of your game today?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Today, my iron shots, short iron shots were very good. I hit it very aggressively. So pretty good. I hope tomorrow I can keep going with the irons.

Q. This is a course where the greens are very difficult, very sloped. So approach play and putting yourself in the right position is very important.

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yes. So I plan all my strategies, and it all worked, yeah.

Q. That's a nice feeling. Quite a few birdies for you today.

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yeah.

Q. Which stands out as the highlight of the day? Which was the best birdie of the day?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: A little bit lucky, there was one birdie putt from 20 yards.

Q. On what hole?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: On No. 7, yeah, and I made it. Yeah, it was very lucky.

Q. 20 yards, that's correct?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yes, 20 yards.

Q. That's amazing. That's a long way.

TING-HSUAN HUANG: 60 feet, yeah, it's very long.

Q. Were you excited when you saw that one go in the hole?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yeah, I was like it was -- I don't know. It just went in.

Q. You are very nicely positioned on the leaderboard heading into the weekend. What does it mean to you to be in contention at this championship?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Just doing my best.

Q. Are you excited to be playing so well in this event?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Very excited. Next two days play aggressive.

Q. Are you feeling confident for the next two days?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Maybe my putting and more -- putting more aggressive, yeah. Today is kind of a little bit of a because I made two three-putts. So I hope tomorrow can be better.

Q. Are you going to go work on your putting now?

TING-HSUAN HUANG: Yeah, I'm going to go work on my putting.
