Justice Bosio

Q. Justice, 2-under today in the third round, 3-under total. How are you feeling so far?

JUSTICE BOSIO: Yeah, pretty good. Got off to a bit of a rough start this morning. Started with two bogeys so I was a little bit flustered after the first two holes.

Just stayed patient, stayed steady. Yeah, just made birdies and pars from then on in, so it was good.

Q. You said that you felt flustered after your start. What do you do to try and calm yourself down and get back into a different mindset?

JUSTICE BOSIO: I just knew how I had played the last couple rounds, so I knew that the two bogeys were a bit abnormal, so I just trusted that I wouldn't do that again and I could make birdies and pars the rest of the holes.

Q. We have started looking at the lowlights. Let's look at the highlights, the birdies. What holes did they come at and what ones stand out?

JUSTICE BOSIO: I can't remember what hole I birdied on the front nine, but I know I birdied 10 and then 17 and 18. 17 and 18 were pretty good because I looked at the leaderboard I think on 15 and saw that at 3-under I was doing pretty good overall. So I was like, oh, I think I could maybe get two birdies in, and I managed to do it, so that was pretty cool.

Q. Yeah, that's a fantastic finish and must fill you with a lot of confidence heading into the final round.

JUSTICE BOSIO: Yeah, pretty excited. Hopefully climb the leaderboard as high as I can and see what happens.
