

Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific Championship

Quick Quotes

Tuesday, 7 March 2023

Eila Galitsky

Q. Can you say your name and where you're from?

EILA GALITSKY: Eila Galitsky from Thailand.

Q. This is your second time playing in this championship. Can you talk us through how you're feeling, how you've been playing the last few months?

EILA GALITSKY: Well, it's my second time, so I'm very excited to play this tournament. I didn't finish so well last year, but I made the cut, so I'm hoping to have a better finish this year. Yeah, I've been playing -- I just went through a couple of swing changes, so they're -- it's coming together. Let's just say it's coming together.

Q. You've just done your practice round here at the Singapore Island Country Club. Can you talk to us about the course?

EILA GALITSKY: Well, it's a lot tighter than I expected, lots of bunkers. If I just keep it on the fairway, I think my game is going to be pretty easy.

Q. What's your goal for this week?

EILA GALITSKY: Top 10.

Q. Are you feeling inspired at the moment with how the Thai players are going and representing your country?

EILA GALITSKY: Yeah, definitely, very inspired. Just because of the Honda LPGA, my friends Sim and Atthaya, they were playing really well, so I'm inspired to be like them one day.

Q. What are your plans for after the tournament? Are you planning on going pro sometime?

EILA GALITSKY: I don't know yet, either college or pro.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

