Jiyoo Lim

Q. Welcome back to the fifth edition of the Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific championship. How are you feeling this week?

JIYOO LIM: Oh, I'm feeling good, but more focused on my putting.

Q. How have you prepared for this championship?

JIYOO LIM: Before I participated here, I heard there was no caddie, unlike the year before in Thailand, so I did my physical training focused on it and also my shot skills.

Q. You just played your practice round here at Singapore Island Country Club. What do you think of the course?

JIYOO LIM: This course, I think the greens are pretty difficult, very undulated, so I have to focus on my putting, especially reading the greens.

Q. There's a lot at stake this week with the exemptions for the majors. How do you feel about that? Are you inspired? Excited?

JIYOO LIM: The chance is so good, I want to play well in this championship.
