NISHNA PATEL: Can you start by saying your name and what country you're playing for.

NISHNA PATEL: My name is Nishna Patel, and I'm from India.

Q. How did your round go today? Can you talk us through.

NISHNA PATEL: It was quite good. I was putting well. I was happy with the way I recovered -- the front nine wasn't so good, but I think I did well on the back nine.

Q. Are there any holes that stood out for you today?

NISHNA PATEL: Yeah, there were. I made four birdies, so I was quite happy with that.

Q. Can you talk us through what happened on those holes?

NISHNA PATEL: So on the 10th hole, I hit a nice approach shot, stuck it to like three feet, made the putt, so I was happy with that.

Q. What clubs were you using for that?

NISHNA PATEL: A 9-iron.

Q. Any other holes that were particularly good or bad for you today?

NISHNA PATEL: I made a double on the 7th hole, but it was okay, I recovered from it on the back nine.

Q. What happened on that hole?

NISHNA PATEL: I had like a 70-yard shot going into the green, but I caught it heavy, and it rolled back.

Q. What are you going to be working on going into the weekend?

NISHNA PATEL: I'm just trying to keep it simple and just
