Q. Can you talk us through your round today, please.

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: Today is a good day. I just told myself to try my best today. My iron shots and my putting is getting better. It's real good today.

Q. Any holes that stood out for you?

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: There were some birdie putts, kind of like 24-foot putts, and I made a birdie. It's lucky.

Q. What have you learnt this week?

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: This week I enjoyed the course here because it's pretty tricky, the course, and yeah, I think there's a lot I learned this week. Then I enjoyed the food here. It's pretty good.

Q. What's next for you? What are your goals and plans going forward?

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: I'm going to work on my English exam and then go to college.

Q. Any tournaments --

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: Augusta National Women's Amateur is coming up, and I'm very excited, and there are three majors this year, and I hope I can learn from the top players in the world and then just be like them.

Q. Are you excited for that?

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: Yeah, very excited, and looking forward to playing with LPGA players.

Q. What are you most looking forward to from all those events you've got coming up this year, all of your exemptions?

TUNG-HSUAN HUANG: The most exciting tournament, I think it's AIG Women's Open because I've never been to the UK before. Very excited.
