Jiyoo Lim

Q. Can you talk through your round today?

JIYOO LIM: Today, my putt and iron distance weren't good. My condition, too, was very bad. But the focus, my mental, that's good.

Q. I think you still made four birdies today, I believe. Can you talk us through something that was working well on some holes? Can you talk about one of the holes you're proud of that did work well today?

JIYOO LIM: The 13th hole, the par-3, the distance is 118. I shot a 9-iron. Today pin is on the side, but my thinking is I can hole a hole-in-one, and that's a birdie.

Q. What have you learnt this week?

JIYOO LIM: My putting is so bad. More my iron distance, so bad.

Q. Anything positive that you've liked this week or that you've worked on?

JIYOO LIM: The Singapore grass is very different to Korean grass, and I focus my iron contact. But that's all better.

Q. What next for you? What's your plan?

JIYOO LIM: I'm going to Augusta, and the green is very fast and hard. I will focus on my putting.

Q. Are you looking forward to that?

JIYOO LIM: Yeah, it will be exciting.

Q. Any memories from this week? Did you experience Singapore? Did you get out of the golf club?

JIYOO LIM: This is the first time I've been to Singapore. That's very fun and good.
