Justice Bosio

Q. Congratulations. Top 10 here in the 2024 Women's Amateur Asia Pacific. Can you assess the week for us?

JUSTICE BOSIO: Yeah, I think overall it was a pretty solid week. The second round was a little bit average, but bounced back in the third round and then played pretty solid today.

I didn't have as many birdie putts drop as I would've liked, but the top 10 is always good. I think that's my best finish in the three starts I've had, so very exciting.

Q. Yeah, you said not many birdie putts dropped, but the one on 18 did today, so 77 hole birdie, that's always good.

JUSTICE BOSIO: Yeah, I birdied the last on the second day as well after not birdieing any holes, and today I hadn't birdied one since, I think, the third hole, so it had been a while.

Q. We've seen some really low scores out there. Can you talk to us a little bit about how impressive it is what Chun-Wei Wu is doing out there?

JUSTICE BOSIO: Yeah, she's played incredible all week. The course is softer than last time we played so definitely more gettable, but you still got to go out there and play incredible golf, and she's definitely done that this week.

Q. What's next for you?

JUSTICE BOSIO: I'm going home, and I am playing two professional tournaments in Sydney, TPS Sydney and TPS Hunter Valley.
