Q. Pimmada, just finished your first round at the Women's Amateur Asia Pacific Championship. 3-under; must be pretty pleased with that.

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Yes. I mean, it's quite tough conditions, especially it's quite windy in the afternoon, and I guess like we're scared if the rain is gonna come bother us a little bit at the end the game.

It turned out pretty well. The weather been like great. Not too hot today, and I really enjoyed this round so much.

Q. We've spoken to a couple girls who played in the afternoon. Tougher conditions.

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Uh-huh.

Q. Hopefully a bit still for you tomorrow and you can make some more birdies out there.

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Yeah, it's the nature of the game of golf. We'll see what the weather is tomorrow, but I'll do my best actually so, yeah.

Q. And you're playing with Arizona overseas.

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Yes.

Q. Where are you in your college career at the moment?

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: So right now I'm a junior at the University of Arizona. We just moved to Big12 conference, and right now our team is ranked 18 of the country and sitting in the very good position, ready to go into the offseason.

So I'm so excited for that.

Q. That's a pretty competitive conference, Big12?

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Yes.

Q. That must prepare you well for a big tournament like this, playing with some world class talent.

PIMMADA WONGTHANAVIMOK: Yes, I mean, prior my college was in Pac-12, so it's also a very tough condition conference. I have experience with NCAA championships, so I think this is quite a little up my alley.

We'll see how it turns out.
