Eunseo Choi

Women's Amateur
ASIA PACIFIC

Q. Eunseo, even par today. Must feel like you shot 5-under par in those winds out there.

EUNSEO CHOI: Doesn't feel like a 5-under par because I made a couple three-putts which is kind of like the toughest part of my game.

Other than that, I feel I did pretty well. Not exactly a 5-under, but I'll take it.

Q. Putting, is that something you'll work on? Easy fix for you? Couple simple mistakes out there?

EUNSEO CHOI: I feel like it's just my positioning towards the green. You know, the big undulating greens, which I didn't experience yesterday but did today, other than those kind of tough putts, I feel I did pretty good. My six-footers were pretty good. My four-footers, apart from one, I did fairly well.

Pretty happy with my game actually.

Q. Well positioned in the tournament as well; Top 10 currently. We've seen the wind will pick up and could knock some scores around. Do you play aggressively tomorrow?

EUNSEO CHOI: I think I'll play similar to today. Depending on the condition I would go pretty aggressive because sometimes the wind dies down and gives you a chance to go for it. So depending how I am playing, if I feel like going for it.
