Women's Amateur
ASIA PACIFIC

Q. Lillian, you've just played your first Women's Amateur Asia Pacific. How do you find the experience?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah, it was good, but the course is little hard and today was windy.

Q. It was good to see you bounce back with a good round today though. Must be proud of that, playing in those tough conditions.

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah.

Q. How did you find playing with some of the elite amateurs around the world as well? You're only 13, so plenty of those tournaments to come. Were you nervous?

LILLIAN FAUD: I was little nervous. The course, it seems to me it's little hard, but, yeah, I don't know.

Q. It's okay. What about courses like this? Have you played anything like this before? Have you played greens like that before?

LILLIAN FAUD: No.

Q. So very new?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah.

Q. Overall have you enjoyed your experience with the hospitality with the new players from other countries? You enjoy yourself this week?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah.

Q. Is this your mother here with you?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yes.

Q. She must be super proud of you as well?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah, she is.

Q. (Indiscernible.)

LILLIAN FAUD: When I first start playing golf?

Q. Yeah.

LILLIAN FAUD: I start playing when I was five years old.

Q. That's not very long.

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah.

Q. What's next for you? Will you go home and play some more tournaments? What's your next tournament?

LILLIAN FAUD: I don't know.

Q. Just take some rest after this experience?

LILLIAN FAUD: Yeah, but the next tournament will be in Jordan of course.
