Q. Lion, you've just finished your debut at the Amateur Women's Asia Pacific Championship. And a great way to finish with 5-under. How are you feeling?

LION HIGO: Thank you. It's definitely a better feeling than yesterday. I had a tough day out there yesterday. Yeah, I just went into today trying to come out with the best score I could and have fun obviously, and I was able to do that, so I'm really happy with today.

Q. Spoke at the start of the week a little later to start your debut here. What's the plans for you next year? Will you still play this tournament in Royal Wellington?

LION HIGO: I'll see how the rest of the year goes. I'm not too sure honestly. I haven't really planned the rest the year yet. I'm looking to play Q-School as well, so we'll see how that goes.

Q. Jazy is still playing for the afternoon. You'll go out and support her obviously.

LION HIGO: Yeah, yeah, I'm going out to 13 now to try and catch her. Hopefully she finishes well.
