ASIA PACIFIC

Q. Kritchanya, your first Women's Amateur Asia Pacific Championship and you finished at the top of the leaderboard, towards the top of the leaderboard. How did you find the week? Tell us about the week. Tell us about the final round. How did you play?

KRITCHANYA KAOPATTANASKUL: I play not really in my plan, like some shot I cannot control. Today my putting is a bit better, but my approach shot is not working together.

Q. Still a nice way to finish. I think you birdied three of the last four holes.

KRITCHANYA KAOPATTANASKUL: Yeah.

Q. You must be happy with that.

KRITCHANYA KAOPATTANASKUL: Yeah, I happy with that because out there I got a bogey on hole No. 12. I just told my dad, okay, I will have another three birdies to make myself up here.

Q. Easy game, isn't it? Just go hit birdies and that's it. And it's your birthday tomorrow.

KRITCHANYA KAOPATTANASKUL: Yeah, it's my birthday tomorrow.

Q. Happy birthday. Really great birthday present you've given yourself. Will we see you next year at Royal Wellington in New Zealand? Maybe?

KRITCHANYA KAOPATTANASKUL: I hope so.
