Chuc An Le

Women's Amateur
ASIA PACIFIC

Q. How are you feeling after round two today?

CHUC AN LE: So the two rounds that I have played, it's pretty different from the practice round. It's probably easier because the practice round was really windy, and getting in the two rounds, first two rounds of the tournament is not that windy.

I think we got pretty lucky, yeah.

Q. And are you feeling a bit more confident with the course now after playing two rounds on it and the practice round?

CHUC AN LE: I think it's not really windy, so I think it's a bit easier for us when we get used to the course and the conditions. The weather is nice and I think, yeah, it gives us more confidence.

Q. And what part of your game felt the strongest today?

CHUC AN LE: The first nine after it rained a lot, then it got really calm, and I think my approaching was better. I was really confident with my approaching and I putted pretty well, too, yeah.

Q. How did you manage today's weather? It was raining and then it was sunny and then it was raining again.

CHUC AN LE: I think the hardest part was the sudden change in the temperature. It gets hot and then it gets cold again. It's just like how you manage to get through that. And it does get a little wet, but I think that's totally fine. Yeah.

Q. And what can you learning from today's round? What have you learned?

CHUC AN LE: Today's round, I think I just need to get more confident in the shot, because I've been thinking too much before the pre-shot routine and then I got a little off it.

But I think if I get the chance to play still tomorrow, I will probably just play and calm and like be patient, yeah.

Q. When you were taking your shots what's going through your head? Are you thinking about nothing? Just going to hit it or what goes through your head?

CHUC AN LE: No. I think I have too much information in my head today. I was like calculating a lot of stuff, like where should I get it, where should I be on the green to be a good putt.

And, yeah, I think it's just too much.

Q. Do you think keeping it simple...

CHUC AN LE: Yeah, keeping it simple I think. One thing to do.

Q. And lastly, any messages for family, friends, all the fans back home in Vietnam?

CHUC AN LE: If I get a chance to play tomorrow, I'll do my best and try to hit under-par round and try to finish stronger.
